

Shit, don't tell Erin I told you that. Maybe you're not supposed to know that part. Or if you do slip up, tell her that Leo told you. Erin will be annoyed with Leo, but she loves him as much as we all do. Which is how he gets away with a lot.

Oh, and I heard that Erin's going to tell you all about Sawyer and Juliet getting together. You're going to love it. I know people have been worried about Sawyer and really wanting him to get happy again. All I can say about that is hang on tight for this story. We met Juliet up in New Orleans after her brother trashed our dock (yeah, yeah, I know you already know about that) and I gotta tell you—I liked Juliet right away but she surprised me once she was in Autre.

There's a lot more to that girl.

And trust me when I say that she's kind of a hero around here. She's exactly what Sawyer needed.

Okay, that's more than a page, so I think Erin will be happy with that. Remember when you call to book a tour with us that you ask for Owen!

Love,

Owen
